

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

Updated December 6, 2010

- Be responsible for transportation to training and matches and ensure that players attend regularly and on time.
- Give adequate notice for all absences from training and games.
- Be honest in all dealings with coaching staff and the Club.
- Attend all pre-arranged parent's meetings.
- Keep the winning of games in perspective. Player development is the primary objective.
- Leave the coaching to the coaches. Refrain from coaching from the sidelines during matches. Do not shout at players.
- Positively encourage and support the players and team. Do not place an unwarranted amount of pressure on the players.
- Keep the coach fully informed of ANY injuries or matters that may affect the player's performance.
- Advocate a healthy lifestyle that is appropriate to the player's development.
- Follow the league mandate for Zero Tolerance policy and the message of the rule.
- I agree to pay for all fees or fines incurred by the Club for my violation of league rules and or the Zero Tolerance Policy
